

Remember precise words for trees by writing a poem

Patty O'Malley Rice Illustration

Out on his hammock, Grandpa finally woke,
"I'm going have to cut down that very tall"
_____ a. Ash b. Pine c. Oak

"And, that one?" Granny said.
"It's brown and ugly and nearly dead."
"I'll get some twine
and cut down that dried out.?"
_____ a. Ash b. Pine c. Oak

"Gonna take me a tire," Grandpa said with demur. And hang me a swing of that tough ole ...
_____ a. Maple b. Fir c. Ash

"You"d better to swing with a dash and a flash if you put the swing in that strong old..."
_____ a. Maple b. Fir c. Ash

"And though I'm old and not able.
I have to chop down that Sugar..."
_____ a. Maple b. Cottonwood c. Spruce

"And even though I ain't Zeus I'll have to remove that decaying ..."
_____ a. Maple b. Cottonwood c. Spruce

Take a nap? Grandpa thought he would?
And, he fell asleep under that...
_____ a. Maple b. Cottonwood c. Spruce